

THE first week in the autumn month has passed, and the quiet of the social world is still almost unbroken. The people who have spent the vacation out of town are beginning to return, and those who have spent it here are leaving, so the real trend of the autumn affairs is not yet evident. The fall marriages, however, are well under way, and the past week recorded a number of Cupid's victims. In the near future there are to be many more, and a great number of the social events will be those in honor of people approaching the altar.

The reopening of the theatrical season has given an opportunity for another diversion, and a number of small theatre parties were enjoyed during the past week. The autumn season at the ever-popular Country club is well on, and the bright days of this month and the next promise to be delightful there. The real games are played at this time and the more leisurely amusements only are for the summer season.

Altogether, the autumn gives promise of many gayeties, and when the resorts are all closed and the people at home once more, there will doubtless be plenty doing.

Marriages.

The weddings of the past week have been numerous, and some very notable ones were among them. Beginning the week with a wedding in high style on Sunday last, Miss Lydia Gray Ridge, formerly of Kansas City, was married to Mr. George Raymond Walker. The young people left the same day for a bridal trip to the coast, whence they will return to make their home in Salt Lake.

The marriage of Miss Corey Ferguson and Dr. F. L. Albright was solemnized on Thursday, and was followed by a large and elaborate reception at the home of the bride's mother, Dr. and Mrs. Albright will live in Kailspell, Mont., after a short trip through the northwest.

Miss Gertrude Felt and Mr. H. F. Kimball were married the same day, and the beautiful quiet home wedding was followed by a wedding supper to a few of the most intimate friends of the families. Mr. and Mrs. Kimball are in their new home at 121 Fourth street, where they will see their friends after the 20th of the month.

The marriage of Miss Hester Cannon and Mr. Daniel B. Richards took place Wednesday morning at the Salt Lake temple, and was followed by a wedding breakfast in the morning, and a reception early in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Richards left Wednesday evening for a trip to New Orleans.

Among the weddings of the coming week are that of Miss Mabel Katherine Wallace and Mr. Fred W. Reynolds, which takes place Tuesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, and that of Miss Ruby Wells and Mr. F. L. Moore, which will be solemnized Thursday at the home of Miss Lydia Wells.

Coming Events.

The programme for Miss Agatha Berkhoel's testimonial concert to be given at the theatre tomorrow evening has been arranged and promises to be one of the best heard here. Miss Berkhoel will be assisted by such well known artists as Mr. Shepherd, Miss Sharp, Miss Perrin, Mr. Skelton, Professor McClellan and the Graham-Ashworth-Robinson-Squires quartette.

The engagement of Miss Millie Pinney and Mr. Arthur J. Lowe, Jr., was formally announced at the thirty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Pinney, Saturday evening, August 13. The marriage will take place this month.

Cards are out announcing the wedding reception of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. and Julian F. Smith, Wednesday evening, at the home of Mrs. J. T. Hodson.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack Keith will receive their friends next Friday evening from 5 till 11, to meet Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ryth, sr., of Evanston, Wyo.

Mrs. F. W. Francis and Mrs. G. B. Bickley have invitations out for a reception at the home of Mrs. Francis, next Thursday afternoon from 2 till 4 o'clock.

Mrs. H. N. Mayo will entertain at a large card party on Wednesday, Sept. 24.

Luncheon and Cards.

A most unique party was that given Friday afternoon at the Amelia palace, at which Miss Shoop of Missouri was the guest of honor. A large card party, at which nearly fifty guests were entertained, was preceded by a course luncheon, the guests being seated at the small card tables. On each table was a high vase of bright purple asters, and the other decorations were of the same shade. Mrs. Place cards for the luncheon were of white, with the crest of the house in gold. During the time of luncheon the Niles Mando orchestra furnished delightful music.

At the conclusion of the meal, the guests adjourned to the upper floor, and later returned to the tables for the game, which was sixty-three. Each guest was given a large garden hat for tallying, and for each game won, a bunch of flowers was awarded. When the party was ended, immense bows of satin ribbon were given to each of the three having the handsomest hat. Miss Webber won a beautiful lot of cream satin ribbon, Mrs. Ferris was awarded a blue bow, while a black bow fell to a consolation to Mrs. Howard. Mrs.

Holmes was assisted in the distribution of the flowers by Miss Grace Emery and Miss Laura Bransford. Besides the flowers, each guest was given a foreign postal card as an individual tally. Some of the ladies carried home the most unique souvenirs as trophies, showing their skill in two lines, the completed piece of millinery forming a creditable showing in some cases.

Kensington.

Miss Marjorie Ellerbeck entertained at a very delightful Kensington Wednesday afternoon. Besides the sewing time which was well spent, an hour was devoted to a most interesting guessing game. The faces of famous actresses and actors were shown, and Miss Alleen Crismon was awarded the prize for guessing the greatest number. The house was prettily decorated for the affair, the Japanese idea being well carried out. The prevailing color was red, and red asters and chrysanthemums were used in profusion. The guests were Misses Edna Bailey, Anna Adams, June McIntyre, Eveline Thomas, Daisy Raybould, Chetche Wells, Genevieve Clarke, Lucile Taylor, Edith Sharraden, Edith Kingsbury, Colleen Crismon, Vivian Little, Mrs. Sydney Beatty, Lucia Spence, Letta Rawlins, Adelaide Wells, Helen Gillespie, Pauline Terhune, Ella Mantor, Laura Billings, Mary Sharp, Carrie Sappington, Edith Hale, Misses Cooper, Mrs. Will Ellerbeck.

Afternoon Party.

Miss Marguerite Donnellan was the guest of honor at a very delightful afternoon party given last Wednesday by Miss Beatrice O'Connor. Yellow and white were the colors used in the house decorations, and marguerites were the flowers chosen. Sixty-three was the game played, and later a musical contest was enjoyed. Place cards for the game were hand decorated, with a sign in lavender. The prize was won by Miss Winnie Lynn, and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. P. O. Perkins, Miss Elsie Dickert, Miss Eva Richardson and Miss Sadie Wolbers of Atchison. The young ladies present were Mrs. Charles W. Lawrence, Mrs. A. B. Witche, and the Misses June Bantz, Susie Sawyer, Winnie Lynn, Jennie Lynn, Virginia Breeden, Elizabeth Palmer, Helene Critzer, Leni Myers, Beattie Critzer, Eva Richardson, Eva Mason, Louise Bascom, Hazel Stevens, Rosalie Cope, Irma Watson, Nellie Cullen, Mercy Berkley, Norma Dickert.

At Tea.

The Misses Sue and Stella Clark entertained last Monday afternoon at a very pleasant tea in honor of Miss Corey Ferguson. The house decorations were most beautiful, the parlors being in white and yellow, while in the dining room the pink and white of the wedding decorations were shown. At the tea table each guest drank from a dainty hand-painted cup which was later presented to the guest of honor. The place cards consisted of tiny cards with the written fortune of each guest. The cake containing a ring was cut, and the ring fell to Miss Nettie Lambourne. The guests present were Miss Ferguson, Mrs. Bonnemort, Mrs. Dunyon, Miss May Crane, Miss Amy Erickson, Miss Mary McLeod, Miss Myra Sowles, Miss Mary Mayne, Miss Nettie Lambourne and Miss Florence Dow.

Japanese Luncheon.

Miss Claire Ellerbeck was the hostess at a charmingly appointed luncheon given Tuesday in honor of Miss Mabel Katherine Wallace, whose marriage to Mr. Fred Reynolds will take place next Tuesday. The decorations were entirely Japanese, the place cards being hand-painted Japanese water color pictures. The flowers used were large red chrysanthemums. Covers were laid for eight, those present being the guests of honor being Miss Stella Watson, Miss Millie Ray, Miss Valentine Murphy, Miss Katherine Thorpe, Miss Beatrice Wilkinson and Miss Jean Hyde.

At Supper.

The Misses Bubb of Fort Douglas gave a delightful though informal supper last Monday evening complimentary to Mr. Philip Jack of Harlan, Ia., who was a guest in the city. A chafing dish supper was served on the porch, and a charmingly informal evening passed. The guests present were the Misses Donnellan, the Misses Sherman, Miss Creary, and Mr. Jack. Mr. Hamilton Coffin, Mr. Street, Lieutenant Farrell and his brother, Lieutenant Falls, and Captain Creary.

At Dinner.

Mrs. Bonnemort was the hostess at a very prettily arranged dinner given Tuesday evening in honor of the Rev. Dr. Albright and his son, Dr. F. L. Albright. Pink and white were the colors chosen for the table decorations; the centerpiece being a high vase of pink asters on a bed of pure white. At each of the four corners masses of the white were surrounded by the pink and streamers of green radiated from the center. Covers were laid for twelve, the other guests being Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Dunyon, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Peasey, Mrs. Dunyon, Miss Ferguson and Mr. Elmer Albright.

At Luncheon.

The Misses Cooper were the guests of honor at a pleasant luncheon given on Thursday by Miss Mary Cowan. The table decorations were roses and ferns, and dainty place cards, decorated with fruit and vegetables, indicated the places. The young ladies present to meet the Misses Cooper were the Misses Evelyn Thomas, Annie Adams, Elizabeth Davis, Helen Shepard, Helen Gillespie, Pearl Weiler, Marjorie Ellerbeck, Chetche Wells, Gertrude Rawlins, Edith Crane and McCready.

Kitchen Shower.

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, jr., gave a kitchen shower for Miss Belle Weller last Wednesday afternoon. A fine musical programme was rendered by Miss Hetie Lambourne, Miss Laura Madsen and Miss Mabel Cutler. Two interesting games were played and prizes were awarded to Miss Rowena Ottinger and Miss Laura Madsen. The guest of honor, decorated with the gifts of the three having the handsomest hat, a pleasing picture secured. The following guests were present: Mrs. Annis Hank and Miss Minnie Hank of St. Louis; Misses Lyle and Mattie Wimmer, Miss Belle Weller, Mrs. George Lambourne,

Miss Louise and Laura Madsen, Miss Rose Myers, Mrs. Edward E. Jenkins, Mrs. Heber S. Cutler, Miss Nettie Lambourne, Misses Edna Bailey, Anna Adams, Misses Minnie Lillian and Mabel Lambourne, Mrs. Parkinson, Miss Mabel Cutler, Mrs. Charles Lambourne, Mrs. Albert Needham, Mrs. Martha Lambourne and Miss Lydia Weller.
